Poem 'A Life Well Lived'

Read by Ian Barbour

A life well lived is a precious gift
Of hope and strength and grace
From someone who has made our world
A brighter, better place.

It's filled with moments
Sweet and sad with smiles and sometimes tears
With friendships formed and good times shared
And laughter through the years.

A life well lived is a legacy
Of joy and pride and pleasure
A living, lasting memory
Our grateful hearts will treasure.

Poem ‘In Our Hearts’

Read by Hilton Barbour

We thought of you today
But that is nothing new.
We thought about you yesterday
And days before that too
We think of you in silence
We often speak your name
Now all we have are memories
And your picture in a frame
Your memory is our keepsake
With which we’ll never part
God has you in His keeping
We have you in our heart.

Recessional Music ‘We’ll Meet Again’ (Vera Lynn)

The cortege will move to the adjoining Lawn Cemetery

We sincerely thank you for your presence here today and for the support and comfort you have given to us all at this sad time.
